

Please leave satellite radio alone. I pay for my satellite service because terrestrial radio is a monopoly owned unlistenable mess. I think we have seven infinity stations and I don't know how many ClearChannel stations. These corporate behemoths can't compete with a pay-service upstart? Give me a break.

If terrestrial radio improved it's quality and diversity, I may listen. For now, leave satellite radio alone.

Thank you.